
Audit and Risk Committee Charter

Alta Zinc Limited ABN 63 078 510 988 (Company)

1 Composition

The full Board performs the function of an Audit and Risk Committee.

All members of the Audit and Risk Committee must be financially literate (that is, be able to read and understand financial statements); at least one member must have relevant qualifications and experience (that is, should be a qualified accountant or other finance professional with experience of financial and accounting matters); and some members should have an understanding of the industry in which the Company operates.

From time to time, non Board members may be invited to attend Board meetings when audit matters are being discussed, if it is considered appropriate.

2 Role

The Board's role as an Audit and Risk Committee is to review and make recommendations to the Board in relation to:

- (a) the adequacy of the Company's corporate reporting processes;
- (b) whether the Company's financial statements reflect the understanding of the Board, and otherwise provide a true and fair view of, the financial position and performance of the Company;
- (c) the appropriateness of the accounting judgments or choices exercised by management in preparing the Company's financial statements;
- (d) the appointment or removal of the external auditor, the rotation of the audit engagement partner, the scope and adequacy of the external audit, the independence and performance of the external auditor and any proposal for the external auditor to provide non-audit services and whether it might compromise the independence of the external auditor;
- (e) the Company's internal financial control system and, unless expressly addressed by a separate risk committee, oversee the Company's risk management framework;
- (f) compliance with the Company's Code of Conduct and Whistleblower Policy; and
- (g) if the Company has an internal audit function:
 - (i) the appointment or removal of the head of internal audit;
 - (ii) the scope and adequacy of the internal audit work plan; and
 - (iii) the objectivity and performance of the internal audit function; and
- (h) the adequacy of the Company's processes for managing risk,
- (i) any incident involving fraud or other break down of the Company's internal controls;
- (j) the Company's insurance program, having regard to the Company's business and the insurable risks associated with its business; and

- (k) perform such other functions as assigned by law or the Company's Constitution.

Ultimate responsibility for a Company's financial statements and the Company's risk management framework rests with the full Board.

3 Operations

The full Board shall meet in its capacity as an Audit and Risk Committee at least half yearly, with further meetings on an as required basis. Minutes of all such meetings must be kept and the meetings are to be governed by the same rules as set out in the Company's Constitution, as they apply to meetings of the Board.

A separate independent Chair, other than the chair of the Board, may be elected to chair the meeting when the Board meets as the Audit and Risk Committee.

4 Responsibilities

Annual responsibilities of the Board's function as the Audit and Risk Committee are as set out in the Audit and Risk Committee Charter – annual action points (attached).

5 Authority and resources

The Board may seek provision of educational information on accounting policies and other financial topics relevant to the Company, to assist in fulfilling their duties. Further, the Board may seek explanations and additional information from the Company's external auditors, without management present, when required.

When considered necessary or appropriate, the Board may conduct or authorise investigations and may retain independent legal, accounting or other advisors.

6 Reporting to the Board and shareholders

To assist the Board to carry out its audit function, the Board in its capacity as the Audit and Risk Committee should compile a report, at least annually, on the following matters:

- (a) assessment of whether external reporting is consistent with Board members' information and knowledge and is adequate for shareholder needs;
- (b) assessment of the management processes supporting external reporting;
- (c) recommendations for amending the Company's Procedure for the Selection, Appointment and Rotation of the External Auditor;
- (d) recommendations for the appointment or, if necessary, the removal of the external auditor;
- (e) assessment of the performance and independence of the external auditors. Where the external auditor provides non-audit services, the report should state whether the Board is satisfied that provision of those services has not compromised the auditor's independence;
- (f) assessment of the performance and objectivity of the internal audit function (if any);
- (g) the results of the Board's review of the Company's risk management framework and internal control systems;

- (h) the results of the Board's review of this Audit and Risk Committee Charter; and
- (i) comment on the Audit and Risk Committee's operation and composition.

The Chair of the Audit and Risk Committee, if appointed, is to be present at the annual general meeting to answer questions, through the Chair of the Board.
